

I wish to register a complaint regarding Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air the documentary "Stolen Honor". It is my understanding that this production is strongly biased against John Kerry and broadcasting it days before the election appears to be a case of direct electioneering.

Its top down approach is also an example of the dangers of media consolidation. I feel the FCC's recent rule changes have encouraged such actions. Sinclair's actions are, in my opinion, an argument in favor of returning to stronger media ownership rules.

Thank you.
